Hungary taxes

Want to setup a company? This article will educate you on the tax laws for a LLC (Kft) which is the most common company structure in Hungary.

Hungary taxes resident entities on their worldwide income. The prevailing standard tax rate for income remitted, from our research, but seek professional advice, is 9%. Hungary may have certain exemptions to remit foreign earned profits. Taxes are lower than average in Hungary because the Corporate Income Tax is 9%. This ranks Hungary as 32nd when compared to CIT globally.

The value added tax (VAT) rate in Hungary is 27.00%, which ranks Hungary as 176th overall with regards to VAT globally. In terms of other taxation, an employer will contribute 22% to the equivalent of a social security fund and an employee will contribute 18.50%. The overall complexity of the tax system is medium. This is measured by average time to comply with a country's labor tax requirements is as it is 146 hours. Contributing to this is the number of yearly labor tax payments, which is 2 in HU.

Thin cap laws are in play. This refers to any sort of restrictions on companies' debt-to-asset ratios. Dividends received by a resident entity, whether from local or foreign source are usually tax-exempt, unless foreign-source dividends are paid out of profits that are subject to a tax lower than 10% (Controlled foreign company). Dividends are distributions of a portion of company earnings, established by the board of directors, to a class of its shareholders. Dividends can be issued as stock, cash, or property. Capital Gains are usually treated as ordinary income and taxed at corporate income tax standard rate. However, an exemption may apply for those gains from the sale of shares of a subsidiary, provided that shareholder owns at least 10% of shares for at least 1 year, and subsidiary is not considered a Controlled Foreign Company (CFC). A capital gains tax is levied on the profits that a corporation or natural person realizes when he or she sells a capital asset for a price that is higher than the purchase price.

Dividends, interests, royalties and fees paid to non-residents entities are not subject to withholding tax. Payments to foreign individuals on dividends, interests and royalties are subject to a withholding tax of 15%, unless rate is reduced under a tax treaty.
